Louisson Makes Plea For Protection For Coffee

That the representatives of Hawall had rather a hard time of it before the Ways and Means Committee at Washington where they appeared to speak in favor of a protective tar iff on coffee, appears from recent Washington dispatches, excerpts from which follow:

Mr. Payne informed the business men that their time would be strictly limited, most of them being allotted five minutes. An hour later when the coffee schedule was under consideration, George M. McClellan, a promibe heard in behalf of several coffee-

"That means," said Mr. McClellan indignantly as he walked from the committee room, "that I will not be

A wide variation of subjects were discussed before the committee today, and the number of witnesses who appeared was so great that the chairman ordered a night session.

After Abram L. Louissan had made a plea for protection on coffee in favor of Hawaii, Chairman Payne demanded to know of Louissan if he thought that the consumers of the United States should have to pay five cents additional for every pound of 1,000,000,000 pounds of coffee con-sumed annually—in all $50,000,000 -simply to protect a coffee industry which at its height could not produce more than 400,000,000 pounds annually. Mr. Louissan thought that the tax was just as fair as the tax put on other necessities of the poor man's breakfast table.

MAKING GOOD SUGAR

Hilo, Dec. 10,-"Mr. Horner and I njoyed every minute of our short trip o Cuba," said Mr. John T. Moir when peaking of his visit to the Atlantic ugar island. "We were royally entertained wherever we went, both in Havana and on he sugar estates that we visited. While we were not talking much of the object of our visit, in fact we could not because we were asking so many questions, our eyes were busy taking in everything there was to be seen. "In my opinion," said Mr. Moir, "the possibilities of Cuba for producing sugar are immense. Every acre of the island can be cultivated. Some of it would have to be cleared but that PROPOSALS FOR PROVIDING is not difficult. The soil is exceedingly rich and has hardly been scratched. TURES. "Cane is hauled to the mill by bulanxious for annexation to the United States, prefering their independence if they can get the greater differential that they now ask from Congress. For three hours we were riding on a train through one plantation, mile after mile of sugar cane.

There is one plantation on Cuba that can easily produce as much suga as all of these islands put together did last year. I told the manager so, he laughed and would not believe me They are quite satisfied with two tons of sugar to the acre, and they have plenty of land which has never seen plant cane."
